WELCOME FROM THE BSRA CHAIR

Brisbane Schoolgirls' Rowing Association

Welcome to the 2017 Head of the River, the premier event in the BSRA calendar.

We congratulate all students from our ten BSRA rowing schools for their passion, dedication and grinding determination in what has been another outstanding rowing season. We commend the students for supporting and motivating their teammates, for always performing gracefully under pressure, and the older students for getting out of bed and making it to each of those early morning training sessions.

On behalf of the Association and member schools, we thank all those who have contributed to their school's rowing program for 2017. Our special thanks go to our families, staff and supporters who enable our rowers to participate in this most demanding sport, and encourage them in doing their very best.

Importantly, we acknowledge our School Rowing Coordinators and our coaches for their considerable work for this regatta, and throughout the entire 2017 rowing season. We also extend our thanks to Rowing Queensland for their assistance and support of the BSRA program.

We look forward to a wonderful day of racing and wish all crews the best of luck.

Mrs Florence Kearney

A GUIDE TO ROWING

+ COXSWAIN OR COX

The person in the boat designated to steer and command. This person is required in all BSRA boats except for the single scull. The '+' in your program denotes the boat carrying a coxswain. It is a unique position that the (generally) smallest person in the boat and not using an oar, has the most power. All crews must listen and obey the commands of the cox. No one speaks in the boat aside from the cox. Not adhering to this makes it very confusing and establishes a communication and power imbalance in the crew.

SEATS

POSITIONS IN THE BOAT

All positions in the boat are referred to as 'seats'. The first seat at the bow of the boat crosses the finish line first. The seats continue as 2 seat, 3 seat, stroke seat and then coxswain or in the case of an eight: bow seat, 2 seat, 3 seat, 4 seat, 5 seat, 6 seat, 7 seat, stroke seat and coxswain. When rowers first get in the boat, they signal they are ready, by shouting out their seat number starting from bow seat and then the coxswain knows who and when to begin her commands.

Commands and Terminology

Bow side	Right hand side of the boat from the coxswain perspective
Stroke side	Left hand side of the boat from the coxswain perspective
Front and back chocks	Front or back of the slides (seat position)
Catch	Entry of oar and control of the handle
Finish	Exit of oar and control of the handle
Hang	The body in compression taking the force of the catch in the handle and hanging off the handle, forcing you to drive with the legs before opening the body
Sitting ready	Sit forward and blades (end of the oar) buried
Easy oar	Finish the stroke you are on at the hands away point and cease rowing
Let it run	Called when the coxswain wants the rowers to stop rowing and let the shell's momentum continue to move the shell through the water.
Drop	After and 'easy' and the boat is running this call refers to the dropping of the oars on to the water in unison
Recovery	When the oar is not in the water and the preparation is for the next catch
Drive phase	When the oar is in the water
Sequencing	The correct sequencing from the back: arms, bodies, legs Through the drive: legs, bodies, arms

Back it down	Rowers do the opposite of the racing rowing motion in the water to move the boat towards the stern end rather than the bow
Check it	With the shell moving, the rowers partially bury squared blades at the finish to bring the shell to a stop as quickly as possible
Hands on	Everybody in unison ready to lift the boat
Square blades	When the oar is extricated from the water the blade stays at right angles to the water on the release
Feathered blades	When the oar is extricated from the water, the blade is turned parallel with the water on the release and minimises hitting the water in the recovery
Power 10 or 20	A call in the race plan by the coxswain to manage/inspire an extra effort
Tap it 'round on bow side	Bow siders with arms only square blades turn the boat to stroke side
Tap it 'round on stroke side	Stroke siders with arms only, square blades turn the boat to bow side
In two	Used to call changes during rowing, it's most common for the coxswain to give the rowers two strokes notice before changing drills, stroke ratings, pairs, etc.
Paddle	Distinguishes the expected pressure exerted through the blade. Solid but comfortable.
Arms across, toss	Instruction to lift a boat out of the water

1X SCULL

The smallest boat used. Rowed by one sculler using two oars. In BSRA competition there is one competitor from each school in each Year level 8 to 12. The race distance is 1000m.

4X+ QUADRUPLE (QUAD) SCULL

Four scullers each using two oars. In schoolgirl competition, this boat is coxed but at club and elite level it is coxless. In BSRA competition there are multiple divisions. Years 8 and 9 race distance is 1000m, Year 10 race distance is 1500m. There are no Quad Sculls in Senior (Year 11 and 12).

4+ FOUR

Four rowers each using one oar. In schoolgirl competition, this boat is coxed but at club and elite level it is coxless. In BSRA competition the race distance is 1500m. It is a Senior boat option only (Year 11 and 12).

8+ EIGHT

Eight rowers each using one oar. In all competition, this boat has a coxswain. Traditionally the 'Blue Ribbon' event. The BSRA competition has three divisions of eights. Division 2 and 3 are a Senior category (Year 11 and 12 only) and the OPEN Eight or 1st Eight or 1st VIII is for any year level rowers from Year 10 to 12.

GETTING RESULTS TODAY

Aside from this program, the draw for heats and straight finals is on the BSRA website.

The live results are available on the Rowing Queensland website:

www.rowingqld.asn.au

At the end of the days racing the results will be posted on to the BSRA website:

www.bsra.org.au

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN A GOOD CREW

Rowing requires strength, power and technical finesse. At the heart is the concept of 'pulling your own weight'.

Rowing should be a continuous motion where a particular sequence is repeated.

A very simple outline is provided here:

From the back: arms away, bodies over, break the knees, glide forward, place the blade in the water by raising the hands, lock and load, drive the legs, lever bodies at the square off, drawing the handle flat, tapping the handle down and repeat.

Individually and as a crew good posture is critical.

As a crew – the basic timing of the blades, entering and exiting the water together makes the most of the pressure applied to maximise boat run.

Working together and not against each other.

The rock over, control up the slide and drive phase of the legs in unison.

Only one person in the boat giving commands – the cox. The rest of the crew being able to take and respond to commands.

OTHER THINGS TO KNOW TODAY

- Lane 1 is the furthest from the spectator side.

- All crews must display Rowing Queensland approved Bow numbers.

- All crews must be in the starters control 5 minutes prior to the scheduled start time of the event.

- Power boats other than official regatta boats are not permitted on the lake.

- Each crew is required to be in school rowing uniform.

- Crews are not permitted to use transmitting or receivable devices in the boat.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Brisbane Schoolgirls' Rowing Association thanks the following organisation and individuals for their contribution to schoolgirl rowing throughout this season.

- Rowing Queensland Board and Management Team

Murray Stewart, CEO
Lucy Benjamin, Clubs Coordinator
Mike Partridge, Manager of Sport and Development

- Time keepers and recorders
- Volunteer boat drivers
- Regatta and boat race officials
- Host school organisers and volunteers

- Technical Support – Paul Pettigrew and Andrew McNicol

- The Directors of Rowing and all the coaches

- All schools and parent volunteer groups

Special thanks to James Worrell and Bennett and Francis for their continued support of the BSRA by hosting and maintaining the BSRA website.

REGATTA OFFICIALS

Thanks also to all those who volunteer their time to support Schoolgirls' rowing throughout the year.

*The volunteers contribute more than just man and woman power but spirit and goodwill.
Without this generous help we would not be able to run the BSRA rowing program.*
